The Hour of Testing Spiritual Depth and Insight in a Time of Ecclesial Uncertainty Fr. Donald Haggerty

THE RENOWNED spiritual writer Fr. Haggerty presents a powerful work of Catholic spirituality that confronts the ecclesial uncertainties and world circumstances that demand profoundly new insights. The relationship between our spirituality and the state of the Church, between our holiness and the darker forces within a contemporary culture, is especially pertinent today.

This book offers a striking interpretation for a renewed spirituality: that Jesus will live out within the Church the sufferings of his own Passion and death. The demands of our holiness during such a time will be to live a spirituality in union

“A hard-hitting analysis of today’s societal psychosis and dark godlessness, calling us to live in union with Christ’s Passion. This is a prophetic book.”

— Fr. Peter John
Cameron, O.P.,
Founding Editor,
Magnificat

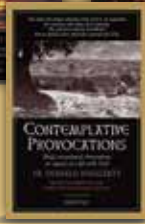

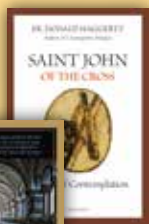

with significant features of Jesus’ own last week.

To ponder the spiritual magnitude of the current hour and to perceive key insights for spirituality, the meditations in this book will intensify our love for God and provoke in us a greater desire for the full gift of self to God.

The Mystery of Joy

Peter Kreeft

JOY: WE LOOK for it, long for it, and spend our lives chasing it. Yet do we really know what it is? Is it a feeling, a state of mind, or a reward for success? Do we know where to find it? The more we seek it, the more it eludes us.

Yet joy is real. "Joy", writes philosopher Peter Kreeft, "is a mystery. It is bigger than we are." Joy's secret, however, is that it cannot be reached or found, but only given. True joy is God Himself, who, giving Himself, takes us outside of ourselves, across valleys of loss and mountains of triumph.

This lucid, witty reflection on the true nature of joy convinces us, page after page, that while sorrow is inevitable, joy is very, very near at hand. "It's scandalously simple," Kreeft reveals. "There's no method; you just do it." To "do" joy, we must let go of all fake happiness, all false gods. We must return,

NEW!

“Many writers have the gift of irony, or humor; or logic, or common sense. Very few combine all these gifts in one talent and put it at the service of truth. Peter Kreeft is simply the best, the most engaging, Christian apologist at work today.”

— Francis X. Maier,
Author, True Confessions: Voices of Faith from a Life in the Church

over and over, to the one true Joy, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Drawing from the wisdom of C.S. Lewis and St. Thomas Aquinas, this instant classic by self-proclaimed curmudgeon Peter Kreeft walks us through the long, beautiful task of surrendering to deep joy, the chief work of any life worth living.

Our Father

Our Prayer of Hope

Fr. Andrew Hofer, O.P. and Fr. Andrew Nolan, O.P.

WHEN ASKED by his disciples to teach them to pray, Jesus gave them the Lord's Prayer. It is the most perfect of all prayers and contains within it the heart of the Gospel. But what does it mean?

This beautiful book answers that question by offering a personal retreat on how to pray the Lord's Prayer, with abundant insights drawn from scriptural readings, the celebration of the Eucharist, the witness of the saints, the Church's magisterium, and daily Christian life.

NEW!

Each chapter begins with stunning art and a Scripture passage. In retreat style, it continues with an essay focused on one part of the Lord's Prayer. The chapter concludes with the reader praying the prayer taught by the Lord in his school of holiness.

Pope Francis named 2025 a Jubilee Year with the theme "Pilgrims of Hope," and he asks that the prayer Jesus taught us be "the life program of each of his disciples." This lovely work will fill our prayer with hope during this Jubilee Year and beyond.

Saints A Family Story

John and Catherine Cavadini
Illustrated by Anastassia Cassady

TREASURE THIS BEAUTIFULLY illustrated collection of the Stories of the Saints by father and daughter writing team, John and Catherine Cavadini, with stunning portraits by Anastassia Cassady.

NEW!

Through the stories of these saints, we receive new brothers and sisters, mothers and fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers in the faith. Each person's life tells the "story" of God's love in a specific and purposeful way. The vibrantly illustrated portraits bring these saints to life through shape and color, capturing their unique personality and diversity among the magnificent and beautiful "family of saints."

The stories begin with Pope St. John Paul II because he called the Church today to sanctity by giving us the gift of more and more saints.

The stories then move chronologically, from stories of Saints in the Gospels like Saint Joseph and Saint Anna, to Saints of the Early Church like Saints Ignatius, Monica, Augustine, and Genieveve, to Saints of the Medieval Period like Saints Francis, Joan of Arc, and Juan Diego, and to more Modern Saints, like Maximillian Kolbe, Dorothy Day, and St. Teresa of Calcutta.

To Heights and Unto Depths

Letters from the Colorado Trail E

Fr. John Nepil

THE INSPIRING story of an epic hike of the full Colorado Trail that presents the Catholic faith as an Incarnational worldview where we rediscover humanity, creation, and God. The 54 high peaks of Colorado, all over 14,000 ft., are drawn together by a 486-mile Colorado Trail.

In 2022 Fr. John Nepil, a priest-theologian and mountaineer, undertook the trail as a “thru-hike”, doing it all in one hike. The story of his adventure presents us a new perspective—that the Catholic worldview offers the fullest spiritual vision of the backcountry, and the backcountry a privileged place for Catholic education. Drawing on great thinkers of the past century, including

“This is an immersion in the ‘Book of Nature’, along with the books of Scripture, to encounter the living God. It’s what makes the book remarkable, and why you need to read it.”

— Charles Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.,
Archbishop Emeritus,
Philadelphia

Luigi Giussani and Hans Urs von Balthasar, this work is a “first ascent”—a new route where Catholic theology meets alpine adventure.

This is a theological guidebook for those seeking a deeper spiritual vision of the mountains, for all who desire to recover the great patrimony of humanity—to see the Catholic vision of the reality, and to embrace it as a way of life.

A Severe Mercy A Story of Faith, Tragedy, and Triumph

Sheldon Vanauken

A SEVERE MERCY is a heart-rending love story. Vanauken chronicles the birth of a powerful pagan love borne out of the relationship he shares with his wife, Davy, and describes the growth of their relationship and the dreams that they share.

While studying at Oxford, Sheldon and Davy develop a friendship with C.S. Lewis, under whose influence they accept the Christian doctrine. As their devotion to God intensifies, Sheldon realizes that he is no longer Davy’s primary love—God is. Within this discovery begins a brewing jealousy.

Shortly after, Davy acquires a fatal illness. After her death Sheldon embarks on an intense experience of grief and comes to discover the meaning of “a mercy as severe as death, a severity as merciful as love.”

Replete with 18 letters from C.S. Lewis, A Severe Mercy addresses some of the universal questions that surround faith—the existence of God and the reasons behind tragedy.

Sheldon Vanauken

WITH ELOQUENT, moving prose, Sheldon Vanauken tells about those years following the death of his beloved wife, Davy, and how he moved step-by-step through the darkness of his grief into the light of God’s love. But this poignant volume is much more than a sequel to the runaway best-seller, A Severe Mercy: it is a continuing autobiography and an engrossing chronicle of Vanauken’s writings, and always a challenge to live the spiritual life. An Ignatius Press Reprint.

Practical Theology E

Spiritual Direction from Saint Thomas Aquinas

Peter Kreeft

IN THIS UNIQUE WORK, Peter Kreeft brings together 358 useful, everyday insights from St. Thomas Aquinas' masterpiece the Summa Theologiae. He pairs these easily digestible quotes from the Summa with his own delightfully written commentary in order to answer the kinds of questions real people ask their spiritual directors. These 358 passages from the Summa have helped Kreeft in his own struggles to grow closer to the Lord. His practical, personal, and livable advice is the fruit of his labors to apply the insights of Aquinas to his own quest for sanctity, happiness, and union with God.

This in-depth, page-turning biography of Father Joseph Fessio, S.J., founder of Ignatius Press and the University of San Francisco's Saint Ignatius Institute, is written by one of Fessio's earliest Jesuit mentors, historian

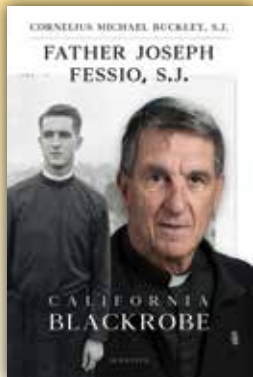

Father Cornelius Buckley, S.J. Born and raised in the San Francisco Bay Area, the bold, often reckless Joe Fessio would suddenly enter the Society of Jesus at age twenty and, by divine providence, find himself studying under three of the greatest theological minds of the twentieth century—Henri de Lubac, Hans Urs von Balthasar, and Joseph Ratzinger (Pope Benedict XVI). Over the decades, he would transform into one of the most powerful and energetic forces in the American Catholic Church, designing a pioneering Catholic Great Books program at USF and founding perhaps the largest Catholic publishing house in the English-speaking world. Includes 32 pages of photos.

Venerable Fulton J. Sheen was one of the greatest spiritual leaders—and entertainers—in the twentieth century. His television shows, for which he won an Emmy Award, reached millions of viewers. But his greatest gift was in finding lost sheep. Through his thought, wit, and compassion, thousands of people likely entered the Church, from all walks of life. Among them were jazz legend Ada "Bricktop" Smith, Communist activist Louis Budenz, U.S. Congresswoman Clare Boothe Luce, composer Fritz Kreisler, Communist Bella Dodd, and Hollywood starlet Virginia Mayo.

By examining this bishop's ministry in action, we can catch a glimpse of how God works in the human heart, and in a fallen world.

After being falsely accused of clerical sex abuse, he suffered 404 days in solitary confinement for a crime he did not commit. Suffering E What Every Catholic Should Know

Mark Giszczak

Just as Job was tried, all of us are tested by suffering. It comes to us in many different forms: grief about the past, pain in the present, and sadness about what might have been. The personal dimension of suffering means that it marks our experience and, in some ways, makes us who we are.

Coping with suffering as Christians includes certain spiritual practices that lead us to surrender our lives more fully to the Lord. By offering our suffering as a spiritual sacrifice, joined intentionally to the suffering of Christ through prayer, we engage with the most profound Christian teaching about suffering: that it is redemptive. Suffering can transform us to be like God
